LYNCH BACKERS FIGHT FOR LIFE

Their Struggle Is for Control of Republican Machine.

DRIFT CLEARLY TO MORRIS

MANY GENTILE AND MORMON REPUBLICANS FOR HIM.

The little wave of Lynch sentiment that rolled up coincidently with the arrival of Senator Reed Smoot from Provo on Tuesday had measurably subsided last night. There is no denying the fact that the senator started his machine to whirring nicely during his two days' stay. But gradually the momentum he imparted dled away and last night the wheels had again come to a wailing stop. Once more the workers were unenthusiastic, once more the workers were unenthusiastic, once more they were privately expressing the fear that their candidate world be taird. Some of the boys were still working, though, and doubtless will continue to work until the day of the election. They include such bread and butter Republicans as "Fussy" J. Anderson, Jodey Eldredge, E. H. Callister, William Spry and some others. These gentlemen realize that they must make a desperate fight of they would retain the semblance of an organization. The common report is that they know they will be cast into outer darkness unless they make a respectable showing for the machine.

So those who run with the machine, those who depend upon it, in large measure, for their daily bread, are still working, still hoping against hope. In their hearts, as a well posted politician said yesterday, they do not care a straw about the election of William J. Lynch to the mayoralty. Senator Smoot nor "Fussy" Anderson, nor Mr. Callister, Jodey Eldredge nor Mr. Spry-would give 5 cents to elect Lynch if the fate of the machine did not hang in the balance.

Making Big Bluff, died away and last night the wheels had

Making Big Bluff.

Making Big Bluff,

Many of them really prefer Morris to Lynch, but they feel that they cannot afford not to make some sort of showing of earnest endeavor. And in spite of all their work the drift towards Morris continues steadily. The chief feature of this drift is that it is not confined to any element or any party. It comes from all partles and all beliefs. It is to be doubted if there is a single voter in Salt Lake who doesn't know of non-Mormon Republicans and Mormon Republicans who are going to vote for Morris this year.

They are going to vote for Morris, they say, because they believe his record and the mayoralty entitles him to an endorsement. "In any other city in the United States," said one of them yesterday, "a man who had made such a record as Morris has made would be elected with practical unanimity. There would be no opposition to him worthy of the name. And for the life of me I cannot understand why there should be any opposition to him here."

The senator declared that the people were promised a liberty that was not given them. "We have not had the freedom that was promised." he went on. "and the state and city lag on acount of it." He was sure that if the "American" taket could be elected next Tuesday an era of great prosperity would follow. At the Cohen rally Senator Cannon again discussed the Smoot case. He told of meeting a woman whose husband was in congress and voted against the admission of B. H. Roberts. Although did not say so directly, he left the inference that the husband is now in the Senate.

"This wife followed the testimony in the Smoot case," he said, "while her husband did not. She was able to analyze it as well as any lawyer, and she asked her husband to vote against Smoot. The husband started to argue the question, saying that Sweet was a second to the saying that Sweet was second to the saying that Sweet was a second to the saying that Sweet was second to the saying the saying well as any lawyer, and she asked her husband to vote against Smoot. The husband started to argue the question, saying that Smoot was personally a clean, honorable man and not a polygamist, while Reborts was a pollygamist. 'You surely would not have me vote against Smoot,' he said, 'merely because he is a Mormon apostic.' And the wife's reply was: 'You smashed one egg only when you voted against Roberts. I want you to kill the old hen that lays the egg.' 'Senator Canpon told the story very effectively and the sentiment of figuratively killing the hen, the other name for it being the first presidency and the quorum of apostics, was heartily applauded.

Judge A. J. Weber also spoke at the Cohen meeting. The judge was unintentionally humorous when he said: "If the 'American' teket is successful in this campaign prayers of thankfulness will go up to the great throne from every shamlet, from every village and from every village and from every village and from every will raise will be swept back to Utah." The judge also opined that there wasn't anything like the water shortage during the late summer and the early fall that the Democrats claimed. He almost tried to persuade his hearers that the Democrats shut off the water in order to force people to vote the Democratic ticket.

COL. WOOD'S PHILOSOPHY.

Thinks Men Who Are Betting May Be Disfranchised.

Disfranchised.

"I've been a-thinking," said Colonel J. D. Wood yesterday afternoon, as he walked by the betting boards on brokers' row, "that it might be to the advantage of somebody to make a list of the men who are betting on the election. And I've been a-thinking that if such a list was made, and the men who are betting challenged on election day, they would not be permitted to vote. That's the law, as I understand it."

The colonel is partly right and partly wrong. The law provides that "it shall be unlawful for any candidate for public office, before or during any election provided by law, to make any bet or wager with a voter, or to take a share or interest in, or in any manner become a party to any such bet or wager, or to provide or agree to provide any money to be used by another in making such bet or wager, upon any event or contingency whatever, arising out of such election."

AMERICAN PARTY SCHEME.

Get Vote in Early, Then Challenge Everybody.

One of the plans of the "American" party for election day was disclosed yes-ierday. At a meeting of the executive committee of the party it was decided to the "American" canvass and challenges. Over in the Third we think we had not admit vesterday that this plan reasonable amount of intelligence.

would be followed. He did admit, how-ever, that the "Americans" had discov-ered some cases of unnaturalized residents who had registered, and who would try to vote. This, he thought, would be pre-vented.

to vote. This, he thought, would be prevented.

On competent authority, though, it may be stated that this is only a small part of the "American" plan, Long lists of voters, the great majority of whom have every right to cast their ballots, have been prepared, and every one of them will be challenged. The purpose is to delay the voting as much as possible, and so prevent the casting of a full vote for any except the "American" it is hoped, too, by the "American" manipulators ...at many voters will not press their right to vote in the face of obstinate and impudent challenges, preferring rather to return to their homes. At Democratic headquarters yesterday it was stated that the voters must be on their guard against this procedure; that they must not be frightened or annoyed. Those who have a right to vote will do so regardless of "American" workers.

The beautiful Lewis home was crowded to the close there is very little money to bet that Lynch will be elected.

Just one wager of consequence was made yesterday. W. J. Hailoran bet $1.000 with J. U. Eldredge, ir., that Thompson would be elected. This is considered one of the best bets-for Eldredge-that has been made during the campaign, for few honestly believe that Thompson will beat both Morris and Lynch. Most of the betting is in small amounts, few of them being more than $100. One daring "American" yesterday posted a wager of $100 to $50 that Morris would not be elected. Mr. Hill was jubilant over the recently completed Democratic canvass. He said that a checking and rechecking of the names showed the precinct to be absolutely sure to give a Democratic plurality in four figures. "The voters of the Third have known Dick Morris for many years." said Mr. Hill. "Many of them were boys with him, and some who were not boys with him, and some who were not boys with him, and some who were not boys with him were girls when he was a boy over there. The first trip will be made through the northern part of the city. The band will be out from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until 7 o'clock in the evening. The idea is to take music and good cheer right to the homes of the vaters instead of asking them to atvoters instead of asking them to attend rallies uptown after the day's work. Stops will be made at certain points. After today a regular itinerary will be mapped out and announced in order that the citizens may know order that the citizens may know where to expect the band at particular hours. In this way it is expected to serenade the entire city before the ballots begin to fall next Tuesday.

Another Complication in the Herring Fishery Controversy-Americans Indignant.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 2.—Another serious complication arose yesterday in the herring fishery situation at Bay of Islands when the steamer Active, carrying eight small boat loads of local fishermen, sailed with the intention of proceeding outside the three-mile limit and there transferring the fishermen to American fishing vessels, on which they would ship as members of the crews.

The colonial gruiser Fiona chased the Active and threatened her with seizure if she went beyond the three-mile limit without clearance papers. The Active thereupon returned. The customs authorities refuse to grant clearance papers to the steamer except for a bona fide voyage. The Americans are indignant and threaten to appeal to Washington for a warship. The British cruiser Latonia is patrolling the bay to prevent collisions between the rival fishermen. cans Indignant.

London, Nov. 2.—More interest is being taken in London in the Newfoundland fisheries question since the matter was brought before the British government by Ambassador Whitelaw Reid. At the foreign office it was said today that the government thinks the United States is mistaken as to some of the facts, but the negotiations are proceeding in the most friendly manner with every prospect of an early settlement. The Newfoundland government has been instructed to abide by the treaty of ISIS and has been informed that it has no right to prevent American fishermen from using the island ports.

Gloucester, Mass., Nov. 2.—Up to a late hour tonight the Gloucester vessel owners had received no advices regarding the Active incident from the Bay of Islands. No official steps have been taken here toward having an American warship sent to the fishing grounds.

Vessel owners who were seen tonight expressed the opinion that under Secretary Root's interpretation of the treaty of 1818 the Gloucester captains have a right to ship Newfoundland fishermen anywhere outside the three-mile limit. They further stated that they thought the United States should back up Secretary Root's ruling by the presence of an American warship.

Mrs. Bertha Kunz Baker Discusses Poem of Thomas Bailey Aldrich in Her Last Lecture.

The apochyphal story of Judith and he overthrow of the hosts of Holofernes by the beheading of the leader was the theme of Mrs. Bertha Kunz Baker last evening at the second of her recitals in the M. I. A. lecture course. The story as told by Thomas Bailey Aldrich was read, the reader prefacing it with a brief explanation of the idea underlying the great poem. To show how the judgment of the author changed in the years of study and reflection of middle manhood she contrasted the few lines written at an early period, depicting the awfulness of Judith's deed with the gentler view taken in after years when spiritual insight had enabled the poet to see the relation of the deed to the whole story.

Mrs. Baker opened the evening with a reading of Bailey's "A Midnight Fantasia," the pleasing little-bit of prose in which the author tells of his fanciful idea of the mating of Shakespeare's great characters after witnessing the tragedy of "Former and Injiet" overthrow of the hosts of Holofernes by city, was to have been held today, but was postponed until tomorrow. Dr O'Hanlon, the coroner's physician, intends to have the contents of Mrs. Todd's stomach analyzed to ascertain whether she was drugged while being taken from the railroad station in Philadelphia, as is alleged in a mysterious anonymous letter which the coroner has received. The writer of the letter declared that knockout drops were first administered to Mrs. Todd after she was thrown upon the railroad tracks, tending the attempts by several persons to secure portions or the whole of Mrs. Todd's estate in this city were expected today. George G. Hastings ounsel for Mrs. Todd's daughter, Mrs. Frank Tousey, said today that a will prepared by Mrs. Todd and later than the one offered for probate was in existence and in the hands of one of the parties interested in Mrs. Todd's afacters after witnessing the tragedy of "Romee and Juliet."
